CHAIRPERSON'S FOREWORD

The Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (Amendment) (No. 3) Bill, 2019 is sponsored by the Departmental Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs through its Chairperson, Hon. William Cheptumo.

The Bill was published in the Kenya Gazette on 8th May, 2019 (National Assembly Bills No. 35/2019). The Bill underwent First Reading on 9th May, 2019 and was immediately committed to the Departmental Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs for review and report to the House pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order 127(1).

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 118 of the Constitution of Kenya and Standing Order 127 (3) the Committee through an advertisement in the local daily newspapers of 20th May, 2019 invited the public to make representations on the Bill. The Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission submitted both oral and written representations.

The Committee held two (2) sittings considering the Bill and adopting its report. The first sitting was held on 4th June, 2019 when the Committee deliberated on the Bill clause by clause. The second sitting was held on 15th June, 2019 when the Committee considered and unanimously adopted its report with some few proposed amendments to the Bill.

May I take this opportunity to -

- (i) Commend the Committee Members for their devotion and commitment to duty which made consideration of the Bill successful;
- (ii) Express gratitude to the Offices of Speaker and Clerk of the National Assembly for always providing leadership and guidance;
- (iii) Appreciate the Committee secretariat for exemplary performance in providing technical and logistical support.

Indeed, their roles were critical to the Committee in the consideration of the Bill.

On behalf of the Departmental Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs and pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order 199 (6), it is my pleasant privilege and duty to present to the House a report of the Committee on the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (Amendment) (No. 3) Bill, 2019.

HON. WILLIAM CHEPTUMO, M.P. CHAIRPERSON, DEPARTMENTAL COMMITTEE ON JUSTICE AND LEGAL AFFAIRS

PART 1

1. PREFACE

1.1. Mandate of the Committee

- 1. The Departmental Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs derives its mandate from Standing Order No. 216(5) which provides for the functions of Departmental Committees as follows-
  - (a) investigate, inquire into, and report on all matters relating to the mandate, management, activities, administration, operations and estimates of the assigned ministries and departments;
  - (b) study the programme and policy objectives of ministries and departments and the effectiveness of their implementation;
  - (c) study and review all legislation referred to it;
  - (d) study, assess and analyse the relative success of the ministries and departments as measured by the results obtained as compared with their stated objectives;
  - (e) investigate and enquire into all matters relating to the assigned ministries and departments as they may deem necessary, and as may be referred to them by the House;
  - (f) vet and report on all appointments where the Constitution or any law requires the National Assembly to approve, except those under Standing Order 204 (Committee on Appointments)
  - (g) examine treaties, agreements and conventions;
  - (h) make reports and recommendations to the House as often as possible, including recommendation of proposed legislation;
  - (i) consider reports of Commissions and Independent Offices submitted to the House pursuant to provisions of Article 254 of the Constitution; and

- (j) Examine any questions raised by Members on a matter within its mandate.
- 2. The Second Schedule of the Standing Orders on Departmental Committees further outlines the Subjects of the Committee, as follows-
  - (a) Constitutional affairs;
  - (b) The administration of law and Justice
  - (c) The Judiciary;
  - (d) Public prosecutions;
  - (e) Elections;
  - (f) Ethics, integrity and anti-corruption; and
  - (g) Human rights.

PART 2

2. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

2.1. Memorandum of objects and reasons of the Bill

- 6. The principal object of the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (Amendment) (No. 3) Bill, 2019 is to amend the First Schedule to the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission Act, No. 9 of 2011 in order to establish a selection panel to oversee the filling of vacant positions in the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission. The current First Schedule only applied to the recruitment of the current Commissioners and there is therefore the need to provide for a selection panel to oversee subsequent appointments.
- 7. Under the Bill, it is proposed that the selection panel comprises four persons nominated by the Parliamentary Service Commission and seven other persons nominated by the Public Service Commission, the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission, the Law Society of Kenya, the National Gender and Equality Commission, the Attorney-General, the Kenya National Commission on Human Rights and the Inter-Religious Council of Kenya.
- 8. It is expected that the eleven member selection panel is representative of cross section of the Kenyan society and its values and that it will ably discharge its core mandate of shortlisting suitable persons for appointment as Commissioners by the President
- 9. The Bill does not delegate legislative powers neither does it contain provisions limiting fundamental rights and freedoms.
- 10. The Bill concerns county governments in terms of Article 110(1) (a) of the Constitution. The enactment of the Bill does not occasion additional expenditure of public funds.

PART 3

3. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN THE REVIEW OF THE BILLS

11. Article 118 (1) (b) of the Constitution of Kenya provides as follows-

"Parliament shall facilitate public participation and involvement in the legislative and other business of Parliament and its Committees"

12. Standing Order 127(3) provides as follows-

"The Departmental Committee to which a Bill is committed shall facilitate public participation and shall take into account the views and recommendations of the public when the Committee makes its recommendations to the House'

13. In line with the Constitution and Standing Orders, the Departmental Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs, in the local daily newspapers of 20th May, 2019 attached as annexure 3 of the report invited the public to make presentations on the Bill. The Committee received written and oral submissions from Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (IEBC) attached as annexure 4.

PART 4

4. CLAUSE BY CLAUSE CONSIDERATION OF THE BILL AND RECOMMENDATIONS

CLAUSE 2

- 14. Clause 2 of the Bill provides that the First Schedule to the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission Act, 2011 is amended—
  - (a) in paragraph 1(1) by deleting the words "such persons as Parliament shall determine" appearing immediately after the words "consisting of" and substituting therefor the words "eleven persons;

Stakeholders Submissions

15. The Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission submitted that it had no objection to the proposed amendment.

Committee Observations

16. The Committee observed that the effect of the proposed amendment to paragraph 1 (1) of the Schedule is to increase the number of persons to be appointed to the Selection Panel from the current nine (9) to eleven (11).

Committee Recommendation

17. The Committee recommends that the House passes the proposed amendment.

Justification for Committee Recommendation

18. The Committee was of the view that increasing the number of persons to be appointed to the Selection Panel will give Parliament and the President more opportunities to nominate and appoint Selection Panel members who represent the various ethnic, religious and professional diversities of the people of Kenya.

- (b) by deleting paragraph 1(2) and substituting therefor the following new subparagraph-
- (2) The selection panel shall consist of-
  - (i) four persons, being two men and two women, nominated by the Parliamentary Service Commission;
  - (ii) one person nominated by the Public Service Commission;
  - (iii) one person nominated by the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission;
  - (iv) one person nominated by the Law Society of Kenya;
  - (v) one person nominated by the National Gender and Equality Commission;
  - (vi) one person nominated by the Attorney General;
  - (vii) one person nominated by the Kenya National Commission on Human Rights; and
  - (viii) one person nominated by the Inter-Religious Council of Kenya.

Stakeholders Submissions

19. The Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission submitted that it had no objection to the proposed amendment but observed that the allocation of only one slot to the religious sector may make the sector feel underrepresented.

Committee Observations

- 20. The Committee observed as follows-
  - (i) The Committee observed that the selection panel for the first appointment of commissioners upon the commencement of section 5 of the Electoral and Boundaries Commission Act, No. 9 of 2011, consisted of the following persons-

- (a) four persons, being two men and two women, nominated by the Parliamentary Service Commission;
- (b) one person nominated by the Kenya Conference of Catholic Bishops;
- (c) one person nominated by the National Council of Churches of Kenya;
- (d) one person nominated by the Supreme Council of Kenya Muslims, the National Muslim Leaders Forum and the Council of Imams and Preachers of Kenya;
- (e) one person nominated by the Evangelical Alliance of Kenya; and
- (f) one person nominated by the Hindu Council of Kenya.
- (ii) The Committee noted that there is need to review the composition of the selection panel in order to reduce the number of members nominated by the religious sector and pave way for more members nominated by Constitutional Commissions. The Committee noted that appointing more Selection Panel members to persons nominated by constitutional commissions accords with the objects of the Commissions and independent Offices as set out in Article 249 of the Constitution which include protecting the sovereignty of the people, securing the observance by all State organs of democratic values and the promotion of constitutionalism.
- (iii) The Committee further noted that Article 249(2) of the Constitution provides that the commissions are required to be independent, subject only to the Constitution and the law and not subject to the direction or control of any person. As such, the Committee was of the view that the constitutional commissions were better placed to select and recommend the appointment of persons who will safeguard the independence of the Electoral and Boundaries Commission.

Committee Recommendation

21. The Committee recommends that the House passes the proposed amendment subject to inclusion of the following amendments-

THAT the Clause 2 of the Bill be amended-

(a) in the proposed new paragraph 2 by deleting subparagraph(f);

(b) in the proposed new paragraph 2 by deleting the words "one person" appearing in subparagraph (h) and substituting therefor the words "two persons"

Justifications for Committee Recommendations

- 22. The Committees amendment justification is as follows-
  - (i) There is need to review the composition of the selection panel in order to reduce the number of members nominated by the religious sector and pave way for more members nominated by Constitutional Commissions. The Committee noted that appointing more Selection Panel members to persons nominated by constitutional commissions accords with the objects of the Commissions and independent Offices as set out in Article 249 of the Constitution which include protecting the sovereignty of the people, securing the observance by all State organs of democratic values and the promotion of constitutionalism.
  - (ii) Article 249(2) of the Constitution provides that the commissions are required to be independent, subject only to the Constitution and the law and not subject to the direction or control of any person. As such, the Committee was of the view that the constitutional commissions were better placed to select and recommend the appointment of persons who will safeguard the independence of the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission.
  - (iii) The proposed amendments paragraph 2(e) and (f) seek to pave way for the appointment of two persons to represent the religious sector. The amendments also seek to take into consideration the submissions by the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission that the allocation of only one slots to the religious sector may make the sector feel underrepresented.

- (c)By deleting paragraph 1(3) and substituting therefor the following new subparagraph-
  - 24. (3) The respective nominating bodies under sub-paragraph (2)(b) to (h) shall, within seven days of the declaration of a vacancy in the office of the chairperson or member of the Commission, submit the names of their nominees to the Parliamentary Service Commission for transmission to the President for appointment.

Stakeholders Submissions

25. The Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission submitted that it supported the amendment noting that the current provision provides no timelines for the nomination Selection Panel members and hence the need for the proposed amendment.

Committee Observations

- 26. The Committee observed as follows-
  - (i) The Committee observed that the current provision (paragraph 1(3) provides no timelines within which the nominating organizations must submit the names of their nominees to the Parliamentary Service Commission for onward transmission to the President for appointment.
  - (ii) The Committee further observed that currently there exists four vacancies for commissioners in the Commission. In this respect, the Committee was of the view that there is need to amend the provision to provide a time limit of seven days of the declaration of a vacancy within which the nominating bodies must submit the names of their nominees to the Parliamentary Service Commission for onward transmission to the President for appointment. The amendment will ensure that the process of filling the vacancies in the Commission kicks off expeditiously upon the declaration of the vacancies by the President.

Committee Recommendation

27. The Committee recommends that the House passes the proposed amendment.

Justifications for Committee Recommendation

- 28. The Committee's justification for the recommendation is as follows-
  - (i) The current provision (paragraph 1(3) provides no timelines within which the nominating organizations must submit the names of their nominees to the Parliamentary Service Commission for onward transmission to the President for appointment.
  - (ii) Currently there exists four vacancies for commissioners in the Commission. In this respect, the Committee was of the view that there is need to amend the provision to provide a time limit of seven days of the declaration of a vacancy within which the nominating bodies must nominees submit the names of their Parliamentary Service Commission for onward transmission to the President for appointment. The amendment will ensure that the process of filling the vacancies in the Commission kicks off expeditiously upon the declaration of the vacancies by the President.
- (d)in paragraph 1(6) by deleting the words "The Parliamentary Service Commission" and substituting therefor the words "The Clerks of Parliament".

Stakeholders Submissions

29. The Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission submitted that the proposed amendment by implication transfers secretariat services for the Selection Panel from the Parliamentary Service Commission to the Clerks of Parliament. The Commission had no objection to the amendment.

Committee Observations

- 30. The Committee observed as follows-
  - (i) The proposed amendment to paragraph 1(6) seeks to transfer provision of secretariat services for the Selection Panel from the Parliamentary Service Commission to the Clerks of Parliament.
  - (ii) The Parliamentary Service Commission is an independent Commission established under Article 127 of the Constitution. The functions of Commission include promoting the ideals parliamentary democracy and performing functions as may be prescribed by national legislation. The Committee further noted that Article 127(3) provides that the Clerk of the Senate shall be the Secretary to the Commission. As such the Committee was of the view that the Parliamentary Service Commission is better placed to provide the secretariat services and facilities that may be required by the Selection Panel in the performance of its functions under the Act.

Committee Recommendation

31. The Committee recommends that the House deletes the proposed amendment to paragraph 1(6) of the Schedule to the Act.

Justifications for Committee Recommendation

32. The Committee observed that the Parliamentary Service Commission is an independent Commission established under Article 127 of the Constitution. The functions of the Commission include promoting the ideals of parliamentary democracy and performing other functions as may be prescribed by national legislation. The Committee further noted that Article 127(3) provides that the Clerk of the Senate shall be the Secretary to the Commission. As such the Committee was of the view that the Parliamentary Service Commission is better placed to provide the secretariat services and facilities that may be required by the Selection Panel in the performance of its functions under the Act.

MIN No. 578/2019:-

APPEARANCE BY THE IDEPENDENT ELECTORAL AND BOUNDARIES COMMISSION

The Chairperson of IEBC Mr. Wafula Chebukati appeared before the Committee and adduced the following submissions regarding the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (Amendment) Bill, No. 3 of 2019; THAT-

- (i) The proposed amendment under clause 2 of the Bill to the first schedule has the effect of increasing the number of persons to be appointed to the Selection Panel from nine (9) to eleven (11) which the Commission has no objection to it.
- (ii) The proposed amendment under clause 3 of the Bill reviews the composition of the Panel to include 4 Persons from Parliamentary Service Commission and 1 representative each from Public Service Commission, Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission, Law Society of Kenya, National Gender Commission, Attorney General, Kenya National Human Rights Commission and Inter-Religious Council of Kenya. The Chairperson submitted that the Commission has no objection to the amendment.
- (iii) The proposed amendment under clause 4 provides timelines for the appointment of the Select Panel being within 7 days of declaration of vacancy which the Commission supported since current provision in the Act provides no timelines.
- (iv) The proposed amendment under clause 5 of transferring secretariat services from the Parliamentary Service Commission to the Clerks of Parliament to provide Secretariat services to the selection panel, the vetting committee and parliament sittings. The Commission further supported the amendment.

The Chairperson further submitter the following additional amendments to be considered in the Bill;

- (i) under Section 7A (2) of the IEBC Act No. 9 of 2011, the President was obligated to publish a notice of a vacancy in the office of the Chairperson and members of the Commission within Seven (7) days of occurrence of such vacancy. However, there exists a lacuna in the law as to what happens in the event that the President fails to publish the said notice and the Chairperson urged the Committee to consider addressing the gaps.
- (ii) Prior to the enactment of the Electoral laws (Amendment) Act 2016 that amended the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Act No. 9 of 2011, the number of members of the Commission was nine (9) with a quorum of five (5) members. However, when the Act was amended and the number of Members of the Commission reduced from nine (9) to seven (7), the quorum was not adjusted accordingly. The Commission therefore proposed that in the event that the number of members of the Commission are reduced from seven (7), the quorum should be fifty percent (50%) of the members in post, but not less than three (3) in line with provisions of Article 250(1) of the Constitution and the reasoning in Constitutional Petition No. 212 of 2018 Isaiah Biwott Kangwony v Independent Electoral & Boundaries Commission & another and Constitutional Petition No. 165 of 2018 Okiya Omtatah Okoiti v Independent Electoral & Commission & 2 others.

Ruto, Raila allies clash over gold scam

Deputy President accuses opposition leaders of hypocrisy but Orengo defends ODM leader

by Yusuf Masibo, Eric Juma and DPPS

Deputy President William Ruto and Opposition leader Raila Odinga allies yesterday continued to engage in a war of words over the fake gold ne Deputy President and ral MPs asked the Direc-te of Criminal Investigas to thoroughly investigate e matter and bring the "real culprits" to book

Ruto accused Opposition leaders of hypocrisy, saying they have been preaching wa-ter and drinking wine.

"Those who were abusing us that we are corrupt and con men, it has turned out that they were referring to themselves said Ruto

They claimed only the "small fish" in the scam were being targeted while the main sus pects are walking free and in-terfering with investigations. "Small actors are being arrested while the real criminals are walking free," said Kimilili MP Didmus Barasa

GOLD SCANDAL

The gold scam involves the nephew of Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, the ruler of Dubai, who complained to Kenyan authorities that he had lost Sh400 million in a gold deal.

The names of President Uhu-ru Kenyatta, ODM leader Raila Odinga and Interior CS Fred Matiang'i are mentioned in a leaked phone call between a man who sounds like Senator Moses Wetang'ula and a representative of Maktoum.

Baya said the fake gold scan-dal had tarnished the image of the country and demanded action against the suspects, their status notwithstanding.

Dubious deals

Waluke said some leaders who have been criticising the Deputy President were doing so to hide their dubious deals.

"Kenyans now know who the real thieves and con men are. The gold scandal is a tip of the iceberg," said Waluke.

probe the scandal.

Speaking at Ukwala Catholic Church yesterday, Orengo asked the Director of Public Prosecutions to give more in-formation on the matter to end speculations.

"The DPP has claimed that information he holds does not link Raila and Uhuru to the scam that's why investigating agencies must now release their findings to clear the ru-mous," said Orengo. Orengo asked the DPP, whom he claimed was well-versed with the matter, to clear the air on several questions surrounding the matter.

"The primary question that DPP should respond to is where the gold that was on transit to Dubai from Congo is," he said. Orengo who was accompa-nied by Senators Ochillo Ayako (Migori) and Moses Kajwang (Homa Bay) and Gem MP Elisha Odhiambo, said the issue could jeopardise diplomatic and trade relations between Kenya and Dubai if poorly handled.

Kajwang, Ayako and Odhi-ambo asked Ruto allies to stop spreading propaganda and trying to make political capital from the scandal.

Government officials fall victim to sleek con men

-Waluke

■ by PD Correspondent

A syndicate comprising suave and youthful individuals is on the prowl defrauding senior government officials.

Investigators say the con n, who are ingenious at in, who are ingenious at ir game, have one virtue and apon—patience.

"They carefully map out activities, pick and lure victims before making a kill," an investigator told People Daily on shoop vesterday. phone yesterday.

They even mimic voices of key government officials who are perceived to wield influence. Among their victims are President Uhuru Kenyatta, Interior Cabinet secretary Fred Matiang'i and his Defence counterpart Raychelle Omamo.

Suffer in silence

Director of Criminal Inves tigations George Kinoti de-scribed the situation as "severe and almost out of control".

Kinoti (pictured) said most of the cases hardly make it to courts as most of the victims opt to suffer in silence because of "public stigma and embarrassment". As a result, the fraudsters walk the streets free.

"We have advised public fig-ures to be wary of individuals they take pictures with. Kenya is almost becoming a stage of play for con men, who in most cases are young men, leading flashy lifestyles," said Kinoti.

Early this year, Uhuru's name was used to con Sameer Africa chair Naushad Merali of Sh80 million. The suspects are said to have mimicked the President's voice and allegedly effortlessly walked away with the money Police investigations revealed that the con artists wield power, vealth and influence.

According to details filed by police in court, the suspects, while mimicking Uhuru's voice called Merali and asked him to facilitate the release of the money for the purchase of land

The spotlight now is on DCI as it hunts down members of the syndicate.

Last week, investigators arrested 15 suspects in Kileleshwa, Nairobi, who are said to be part of the ring that conned a member of the Dubai royal family of more than Sh400 million with the promise of delivering gold.

DCI officers, who sought anonymity, yesterday confirmed to People Daily of obtaining crucial audio and video evi-dence implicating senior politicians who were also part of

Social media

According to the investiga-tors, the members of the syn-dicate operate from high-end estates and drive big cars.

They take photos with se-vernment officials and splash them on their social media pages to convince would-be victims that they enjoy close relationships with the officials.

During the last military recruitment, a man posing as an aide of Defence Cabinet secretary Omano swindled Kenyans seeking slots in the military. The promised slots never materalised.

By the time police caught up with him, he had conned desperate job seekers of more than Sh6 million.

Investigators say the group recruits ordinary people with the talent of mimicking the voices public figures.

INDEPENDENT ELECTORAL AND BOUNDARIES COMMISSION

CONSIDERATION OF THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORAL AND BOUNDARIES COMMISSION (AMENDMENT) BILL No.3 OF 2019 BY THE DEPARTMENTAL COMMITTEE ON JUSTICE AND LEGAL AFFAIRS

A. INTRODUCTION

The IEBC is a Constitutional Commission established under Chapter 15 of the Constitution with particular reference to Article 249 which sets out the objects of the Constitutional Commissions.

The general functions of the IEBC and other Commissions, as we are aware are set-out under Art 252(1); however, the specific mandate of the Commission is primarily governed by Art 88(4) of the Constitution and the IEBC Act.

B. PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

The Commission notes the Amendments before us -The Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (Amendment) Bill, No. 3 of 2019.

1. Clause 2:

The first schedule to the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission Act, 2011 is amended -

(a) In paragraph 1(1) by deleting the words "such persons as Parliament shall determine" appearing immediately after the words "consisting of" and substituting therefore the words "eleven persons:

The proposed amendment has the effect of increasing the number of persons to be appointed to the Selection Panel from nine (9) to eleven (11).

The Commission has no objection to the proposed amendment.

2. Clause 3:

- (b) By deleting paragraph 1(2) and substituting therefore the following new subparagraph-
  - (2) the selection panel shall consist of-
  - a) Four persons, being two men and two women, nominated by the Parliamentary Service Commission
  - b) One person nominated by the Public Service Commission

- c) One person nominated by the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission
- d) One person nominated by the Law Society of Kenya
- e) One person nominated by the National Gender and Equality Commission
- f) One person nominated by the Kenya National Commission on Human Rights; and
- g) One person nominated by the Inter-Religious Council of Kenya

The proposed amendment reviews the composition of the Panel to include 4 Persons from Parliamentary Service Commission and 1 representative each from Public Service Commission; Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission; Law Society of Kenya; National Gender Commission; Attorney General: Kenya National Human Rights Commission and Inter-Religious Council of Kenya:

The Commission has no objection to the proposed amendment, save that the religious sector is allocated only one slot which may make the said sector feel underrepresented.

3. Clause 4:

(c) By deleting paragraph 1(3) and substituting therefore the following new subparagraph-

The respective nominating bodies under sub-paragraph (2) (b) to (h) shall, within seven days of the declaration of a vacancy the office of the chairperson or member of the Commission, submit the names of their nominees to the Parliamentary Service Commission for transmission to the President for appointment.

The proposed amendment provides timelines for the appointment of the Select Panel being within 7 days of declaration of vacancy BUT with the qualification that each of the respective nominating bodies submit the names of their nominees to the Parliamentary Service Commission for transmission to the president for appointment.

The Commission acknowledges that the current provision provides no timelines and hence the need for the proposed amendment.

4. Clause 5:

(d) in paragraph 1(6) by deleting the words "The Parliamentary Service Commission" and substituting thereof the words "The Clerks of Parliament".

The proposed amendment by implication transfers secretariat services from the Parliamentary Service Commission to the Clerks of Parliament:

The Commission observes that if the proposed amendment is adopted, then the Clerks of Parliament will provide Secretariat services to the selection panel, the vetting committee and parliament sittings.

The Commission has no objection to the proposed amendment.

C. ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

1. The Commission observes that under $ 7A (2) of the IEBC Act No. 9 of 2011, the President is obligated to publish a notice of a vacancy in the office of the Chairperson and members of the Commission within Seven (7) days of occurrence of such vacancy. However, there exists a lacuna in the law as to what happens in the event that the President fails to publish the said notice.

The Commission urges this Honourable Committee to look at ways of addressing this gap in the law.

2. Prior to the enactment of the Electoral laws (Amendment) Act 2016 that amended the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Act No. 9 of 2011, the number of members of the Commission was nine (9) with a quorum of five (5) members. However, when the Act was amended and the number of Members of the Commission reduced from nine (9) to seven (7), the quorum should have been adjusted accordingly. The Commission proposes that in the event that the number of members of the Commission reduces from seven (7), the quorum should be fifty percent (50%) of the members in post, but not less than three (3) in line with provisions of Article 250(1) of the Constitution and the reasoning in Constitutional Petition No. 212 of 2018 Isaiah Biwott Kangwony v Independent Electoral & Boundaries Commission & another and Constitutional Petition No. 165 of 2018 Okiya Omtatah Okoiti v Independent Electoral & Commission & 2 others.

There is therefore need to make these adjustments in the proposed bill.

CONCLUSION

The Commission requests this Honourable Committee to consider the proposals herein.

CHAIRMAN
