- (f) that the candidate's name is not on the list submitted by the political party under section 35 of the Act;
- (g) that the nomination paper was presented after the prescribed period had lapsed;
- (h) that the nomination paper was not accompanied by the prescribed fee;
- (i) that the person stands nominated as a candidate in another electoral area; or
- (j) that the candidate is disqualified under any other written law.

(3) A returning officer shall give his or her decision on an objection to a nomination paper as soon as practicable after the objection is made.

(4) Where a returning officer decides that a nomination paper is invalid, the returning officer shall record that decision and the reasons therefor on the nomination paper, add his or her signature thereto and return the invalid nomination paper to the candidate or its presenter.

(5) Notwithstanding that a returning officer has held nomination papers invalid, the returning officer may admit the nomination papers once the reason rendering the nomination papers invalid has been addressed.

Withdrawal of candidature before nomination

44. A candidate whose nomination papers have been delivered to the returning officer may, before the close of nominations, by notice in writing signed by him or her before the returning officer and presented to the returning officer, withdraw his or her candidature.

45. (1) No person shall be a subscriber to more than one nomination paper in respect of different candidates in the same election and if any person subscribes to more than one nomination paper such subscription shall be inoperative on nomination papers:

Multiple subscribers,
etc

Provided that this subregulation shall not apply to the subscription of a person by reason only of his or her having subscribed a nomination paper of a candidate who has died or who has withdrawn his or her candidature before a second nomination paper subscribed by that person has been delivered to the returning officer.

(2) For purposes of verifying the names of the members of the political party on the party membership list provided by a political party for purposes of these Regulations, such names shall be confirmed against the party membership list submitted to, and kept by, the Registrar of Political Parties and the party membership list submitted to the Commission pursuant to section 28 of the Act

46. A candidate shall submit a self declaration form as prescribed in the First Schedule to the Leadership and Integrity Act

Certification of candidates
No 19 of 2012

47 (1) For purposes of ascertaining the educational qualification of persons for an elective post, a person seeking nomination shall submit to the Commission copies of certificates of the educational qualification

Ascertainment of
qualifications

(2) Where the body that issued the certificate is not based in Kenya, a candidate shall be required to seek authentication of that body with the Kenya National Examinations Council, in the case of form four certificates, or the Commission for Higher Education, in the case of university degrees

48 (1) No person shall be entitled to attend the proceedings taking place during the time fixed for the delivery of nomination papers unless that person is —

Attendance at delivery of nomination papers

- (a) a candidate;
- (b) a person nominated as deputy to the candidate, where applicable,
- (c) an agent, or
- (d) present for the purpose of assisting the returning officer at the request of the returning officer.

(2) Only two persons shall be entitled to attend the proceedings under subregulation (1) at any one time, in respect of any one candidate, whether one of the two persons is the candidate himself or herself or not.

(3) A person entitled to attend proceedings under this regulation shall also be entitled to inspect and to object to the validity of any nomination paper delivered in his or her presence.

(4) Nothing contained in this regulation shall prevent the returning officer from authorizing observers or members of the press duly approved or accredited by the Commission from attending the nomination proceedings.

Death of candidate

49. Where after the close of the nomination, and before the poll is commenced, proof is given to the satisfaction of the returning officer of the death of a person who has been duly nominated, all the proceedings with reference to the election in that electoral area shall cease and shall be commenced afresh as if the notice had been received on the day on which proof of the death was given, or in the case of a general election or an election involving other electoral areas, the day following the announcement of the last election results.

Provided that no fresh nomination shall be necessary in the case of a person already duly nominated for the election affected by this regulation whose nomination shall remain valid.

Disruption of nomination

50. (1) Where the proceedings of a nomination in an electoral area are interrupted by riots, violence, floods or other natural disaster, the proceedings in that electoral area shall be suspended for that day.

(2) If the day referred to in subregulation (1) is the last day for the delivery of nomination papers, the nomination proceedings in that electoral area shall be continued on the next day as if that were the last day for the delivery thereof.

(3) The "last day" referred to in subregulation (1) shall be treated for purposes of these Regulations as being the last day (subject to any further application of this rule in the event of interruption on that day).

Provided the returning officer shall advertise the postponing of the nominations in such manner as the returning officer considers sufficient to bring it to the notice of the public.

(4) A returning officer may extend the hours of nomination at the electoral area where nomination has been interrupted and shall, where nomination started late, extend the hours of nomination by the amount of time which was lost in so starting late.

Nomination certification, etc

51. (1) The chairperson of the Commission shall issue a candidate who is validly nominated to contest in a presidential election with a certificate in Form 20 set out in the Schedule.

(2) The returning officer shall issue a candidate who is validly nominated to contest in a parliamentary, county governor or county assembly with a certificate in Form 21 set out in the Schedule.

(3) If, after the closure of nomination no person stands validly nominated, the returning officer shall —

(a) certify accordingly to the Commission in Form 22 set out in the Schedule; and

(b) publish a statement countermanding the holding of the election concerned.

(4) If, after the close of nominations, only one candidate is validly nominated, the returning officer shall—

- (a) declare the candidate to be nominated, and
- (b) certify accordingly to the Commission in Form 23 set out in the Schedule.

(5) Upon receipt of a certificate under sub regulation (1) or (2), the Commission shall publish a notice in the Gazette and, where two or more certificates are received at substantially the same time, such notice may be a composite one.

(6) If, after the close of nominations, two or more candidates stand validly nominated, the returning officer shall publish a statement and post it prominently at a place at the returning officer's office where the public has full access and at such other places as the Commission may deem necessary in Form 24 set out in the Schedule stating—

- (a) the names, in alphabetical order of surnames, addresses and occupations or descriptions of such candidates as given in their nomination papers;
- (b) the name of the subscribers to the nomination papers;
- (c) the day or days upon which, and the hours during which, the poll will be taken;
- (d) the situation of each polling station and the description of the voters entitled to vote at each polling station; and
- (e) the location of each tallying centre.

52. A candidate who has been nominated may withdraw his or her candidature by delivering to the respective returning officer a notice to that effect.

Withdrawal of candidature after nomination

53. If at the close of nominations for any elective post only one candidate is validly nominated in respect of that elective post in an electoral area, the Commission shall declare the candidate duly elected.

Declaration of no contest Other elective posts.

PART X—NOMINATIONS FOR PARTY LISTS

54. (1) Each political party shall submit to the Commission a party list of all persons who would stand elected if the party were entitled to seats in the National Assembly, Senate or the County Assembly, as the case may be on the basis of proportional representation in accordance with Article 90 of the Constitution and sections 34, 35, 36 and 37 of the Act.

(2) The party list referred to in subregulation (1) shall contain the name, address, age, sex, disability and category of disability, phone number, occupation, elective post sought and such other qualifications as are provided under the Constitution and the Act.

(3) A party list submitted under sub regulation (1) shall be in accordance with section 36 of the Act, and shall be—

Submission of political party list for allocation of special seats.

(a) be signed by the authorised official of the political party submitting the party list; and

(b) be submitted in hard copy and in electronic form

(4) Each political party list nominee shall after nomination, submit to the Commission a letter stating his or her intention to serve if nominated.

(5) The Commission may reject a nominee submitted by a political party for any elective post if that nominee is not qualified to be elected to the office for which the nomination is sought as specified under the Constitution or the Act

(6) The rejection by the Commission of a nominee under this regulation shall not invalidate the entire party list submitted by the political party

(7) The Commission, after making the decision to reject a nominee, inform the political party concerned of that decision and request that political party to submit another name within such time as the Commission shall determine.

(8) The Commission shall publish the final party list in at least two newspapers with nationwide circulation.

Party list to be prepared in accordance with party rules

55 (1) The party list contemplated under regulation 54 shall be prepared in accordance with the nomination rules of the political party.

(2) The Commission may reject any party list that does not comply with the requirements of the Constitution, the Act or these Regulations

(3) The political party whose party list or nominee has been rejected by the Commission under subregulation (2) shall resubmit the party list or nominee within such period as the Commission may specify.

(4) A political party submitting a party list under regulation 54 shall submit a declaration to the effect that the political party has complied with its rules relating to the nomination of the names contained in the list

Commission to publish formula for allocation of seats

56 (1) The Commission shall before the election to which a party list applies, publish in the Gazette and publicise through electronic and print media of national circulation and other easily accessible medium, the formula for allocating the seats to the respective political parties

(2) The formula for allocation of seats to the respective political parties from the party lists shall be the number of seats won by a political party divided by the total number of seats multiplied by available seats for allocation in the respective House

PART XI—PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD

Appointment of national and county chief elections agents

57. (1) Every political party shall at least fourteen days to the date of the election submit to the Commission the names of one national chief agent and forty seven county chief agents.

(2) Every independent candidate at a presidential election shall fourteen days to the date of the election submit to the Commission the names of one national chief agent and forty-seven county chief agents.

58 A person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of this Part commits an offence under the Act.

Offence to fail to comply with Part

PART XII—PROVISIONS ON VOTING AT ELECTIONS

59 (1) Every election shall be by secret ballot and shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, the Act and these Regulations

Election procedure

(2) A voter shall cast his or her vote by use of a ballot paper or electronically.

(3) No person shall cast more than one vote at any particular election.

(4) No person shall vote in a polling station other than that in respect of which that person is registered to vote.

60. Where the Commission intends to conduct an election by electronic means, it shall, not later than three months before such election, publish in the Gazette and publicise through electronic and print media of national circulation and other easily accessible medium, guidelines that shall apply in such voting.

Electronic voting

61. (1) The returning officer shall provide each presiding officer with such number of ballot boxes and ballot papers necessary for the effective carrying out of the provisions of these Regulations relating to the election concerned

Election material at polling station

(2) Every ballot box shall be—

- (a) fairly transparent or translucent,
- (b) be colour coded prominently and distinctively to identify the respective elective post and shall correspond with the colour of the ballot paper for that elective post;
- (c) constructed with an aperture which is large enough to receive a ballot paper.
- (d) clearly labelled with the text of the respective elective post;
- (e) constructed so as to be capable of being sealed so that ballot papers cannot be taken out of the box so long as the seal is unbroken;
- (f) constructed so that the ballot boxes shall bear serial numbers of the polling station and which serial numbers shall be posted prominently and in full view of voters at every polling station.

(3) The ballot box shall be designed in such way as to facilitate voting during the election.

(4) The returning officer shall provide each polling station with—

- (a) both electronic and hard copy of the Principal Register of Voters or such part thereof as contains the names of the voters entitled to vote at that polling station;
- (b) materials to enable voters to mark their ballot papers in elections where marking is necessary;
- (c) instruments for stamping the official mark on ballot papers;
- (d) material for the marking of the voters fingers;
- (e) a seal of the Commission suitable for the purposes of regulation 69 (1) (g);
- (f) sufficient number of compartments in which voters can mark their votes screened from observation; and
- (g) such other materials for the better carrying out of polling.

Admission to polling station

62. (1) The presiding officer shall regulate the number of voters to be admitted to the polling station at the same time, and may exclude all other persons except—

- (a) a candidate;
- (b) a person nominated as a deputy to the candidate, where applicable;
- (c) authorised agents;
- (d) members of the Commission and election officers on duty;
- (e) police officers on duty;
- (f) persons necessarily assisting or supporting voters with special needs or assisted voter; and
- (g) observers and representatives of the print and electronic media accredited by the Commission.

(2) Notwithstanding sub regulation (1), the presiding officer shall admit to the polling station not more than one agent for each candidate or political party.

(3) The absence of agents shall not invalidate the proceedings at a polling station.

(4) Every agent appointed by an independent candidate or political party for the purposes of these Regulations shall at all times during the performance of the duties authorized by the independent candidate or political party display the official badge supplied by the Commission.

(5) No person shall be admitted to vote at any polling station other than that allotted to that person under regulation 59 (4).

(6) No person shall be admitted into a polling station if that person is wearing a badge or has any dressing, signifying symbols or other indication of support for any political party, a candidate in the election or a referendum committee.

Keeping order at polling station

63. (1) It shall be the duty of the presiding officer to keep order at his or her polling station.

(2) The presiding officer may order the removal of any person who misconducts himself or herself at the polling station, or fails to obey any lawful instructions or orders of the presiding officer and such person shall be removed by the police officer present.

(3) A person removed from the polling station under subregulation (2) shall not re-enter the polling station during the continuance of the poll without the permission of the presiding officer.

(4) A person removed from a polling station under subregulation (2) may, if charged with the commission in the polling station of an offence, be dealt with as a person taken into custody for an offence by a police officer without a warrant.

(5) The presiding officer may order the dispersal of any gathering of persons which appears to the presiding officer to be preventing free entry to, or exit from, the polling station or to be intimidating or interfering with voters, and any such order shall be sufficient authority for a police officer, or any other person authorized by the order, to effect the dispersal.

(6) The power conferred on a presiding officer and a police officer under subregulation (5) shall not be limited to the area covered by the polling station only but shall extend to a radius of not more than four hundred meters from the centre of the polling station.

(7) The powers conferred by this regulation shall not be exercised so as to prevent any voter who is entitled to vote at the polling station from having an opportunity to peaceably vote at that polling station.

64. (1) Notwithstanding the terms of any notice issued under the Act or these Regulations, a presiding officer may, after consultation with the returning officer, adjourn the proceedings at his or her polling station where they are interrupted by a riot, violence, natural disaster or other occurrence, shortage of equipment or other materials or other administrative difficulty, but where the presiding officer does so, the presiding officer shall re-start the proceedings at the earliest practicable moment.

Adjournment, etc, of polling by the presiding officer.

(2) The discretionary powers of a presiding officer under subregulation (1) shall include a power in the circumstances therein mentioned to transfer the proceedings to another polling station or public facility in the same constituency, and where presiding officer does so—

- (a) the presiding officer shall advertise the fact in such manner as is sufficient to bring it to the notice of voters; and
- (b) the electoral area for the polling station from which the proceedings are transferred shall, for all the purposes of these Regulations, be deemed to be part of the electoral area of the polling station to which the proceedings are transferred.

(3) A presiding officer shall, in consultation with the returning officer—extend the hours of polling at the polling station where polling has been interrupted under this regulation or for other valid cause, and where polling in that polling station has started late, extend the hours of polling by the amount of time which was lost in so starting late.

(4) Where hours of polling have been extended as contemplated under subregulation (3), the presiding officer shall give a detailed report on the clear facts justifying such extension of hours

Communication with voters at polling station

65 (1) No person other than an election officer or police officer on duty shall, except with the authority of the presiding officer, have any communication whatsoever with a voter who is in, or in the immediate precincts of, a polling station for the purpose of voting.

(2) This regulation shall not prevent the companion of an assisted or supported voter from communicating with that voter.

Polling time

66. (1) Subject to regulation 64, voting shall commence at 6 o'clock in the morning and end at 5 o'clock in the afternoon on the polling day.

(2) Notwithstanding subregulation (1), a person who is on a queue for the purposes of voting before 5 o'clock in the afternoon shall be allowed to vote despite the fact that the voting time may extend to after 5 o'clock.

(3) The voting by Kenyan citizens residing outside Kenya shall be carried out during the Kenyan time specified in subregulation (1).

Sealing of ballot boxes, etc

67. (1) The presiding officer shall, immediately before the commencement of the poll—

- (a) show the ballot box or ballot boxes to those persons lawfully present in the polling station,
- (b) allow those of the candidates, agents and any voter as may wish, to do so, to ascertain that the box or boxes are empty; and
- (c) close the box or boxes with seals so that they may not be opened without breaking the seal.

(2) After a ballot box is sealed under subregulation (1) the presiding officer shall cause it to be so placed in the polling station that it can at all times be in the view of himself or herself or a deputy presiding officer and of the candidates or the agents.

(3) On the adjournment of the poll in a polling station to another day, or on the close of the poll at one station with a view to transferring a ballot box to another station, and at any other time when a ballot box is not in use for the purpose of receiving ballot papers, the presiding officer shall close up the aperture used for the insertion of the ballot papers into the box and place his or her seal on it in such a manner as to prevent the insertion of ballot papers without breaking the seal.

(4) After a box has been sealed under subregulation (3), the seal shall not be broken or the aperture opened except in the presence of the candidates or agents present in the polling station where polling is about to re-commence.

(5) Where a presiding officer affixes his or her seal on a ballot box or aperture thereof under this regulation, the presiding officer shall permit any candidate or agent who so wishes to affix his or her seal on the box or aperture.

68. (1) Ballot papers for an election —

Ballot papers

(a) for use at a presidential election shall be in Form 25 set out in the Schedule.

(b) for use at a National Assembly election shall be in Form 26 set out in the Schedule,

(a) for use at a county woman representative to the National Assembly election shall be in Form 27 set out in the Schedule;

(b) for use at a Senate election shall be in Form 28 set out in the Schedule;

(c) for use at an election for governor shall be in Form 29 set out in the Schedule;

(d) for use at a county assembly member election shall be in Form 30 set out in the Schedule;

(e) for use in referendum shall be in Form 31 set out in the Schedule

(2) Where an election is in respect of more than one elective post, each ballot paper shall be printed on paper of a different colour which is prominent and distinctive from those for use in the other elective posts.

(3) The persons validly nominated under these Regulations shall have their names included in the ballot papers for an election in the same order as they appeared in a notice published in accordance with regulation 51 (5).

(4) Every ballot paper for use at an election shall —

(a) contain the name and party symbol of the person validly nominated,

(b) contain a photograph of the candidate where applicable;

(c) be capable of being folded up;

(d) have a serial number, or combination of letter and number, printed on the front; and

(e) have attached a counterfoil with the same number or combination printed thereon

(5) The presiding officer shall before polling commences, allow the candidates or agents who are present at the polling station to inspect the ballot papers provided for use at the polling station and to note the serial numbers thereon

Voting procedure

69. (1) Before issuing a ballot paper to a voter, an election official shall—

- (a) require the voter to produce an identification document which shall be the same document used at the time of registration as a voter;
- (b) ascertain that the voter has not voted in that election;
- (c) call out the number and name of the voter as stated in the polling station register;
- (d) in case of an electronic register, require the voter to place his or her fingers on the fingerprint scanner and cross out the name of the voter once the image has been retrieved;
- (e) mark the name of the voter to indicate that the voter has been issued with a ballot paper and retain the voter number of the voter as proof that a ballot paper has been delivered;
- (f) stamp the counterfoil of the ballot paper on the face with the official mark of the Commission; and
- (g) stamp the ballot paper at the back with the official mark of the Commission.

(2) A voter shall, in a multiple election, be issued with the ballot papers for all elections therein at the same time and shall after receiving the ballot papers—

- (a) cast his or her votes in accordance with regulation 70 without undue delay;
- (b) submit to having one finger as prescribed by the Commission immersed, dipped or marked in ink of a distinctive colour which, so far as is possible, is sufficiently indelible to leave a mark for the period of the election,
- (c) where a voter has no finger, make a mark on the next most suitable part of the body; and
- (d) upon collecting his or her identification documents, immediately leave the polling station.

(3) A person who knowingly fails to place a ballot paper issued to him or her (not being a spoiled ballot paper) into a ballot box before leaving the place where the box is situated commits an offence under the Act.

(4) An election officer who deliberately refuses to stamp any ballot paper commits an offence.

(5) The presiding officer may, where a voter so requests, explain the voting procedure to such voter.

70. (1) A voter shall, upon receiving a ballot paper under regulation 69(2)—

Method of voting

- (a) go immediately into one of the compartments of the polling station and secretly mark his or her ballot paper by putting a cross, a tick, thumbprint or any other mark in the box and column provided for that purpose against the name and the symbol of the candidate for whom that voter wishes to vote; and
- (b) fold it up so as to conceal his or her vote, and shall then put the ballot paper into the ballot box in the presence of the presiding officer and in full view of the candidates or agents.

(2) The voter shall after following the procedure specified in subregulation (1) put each ballot paper into the ballot box provided for the election concerned.

(3) No replacement of a ballot paper under this regulation may be done more than twice in respect of any particular voter.

71. A voter who has inadvertently dealt with his or her ballot paper in such a manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper may, on delivering it to the presiding officer and providing to the satisfaction of such officer the fact of the inadvertence, obtain another ballot paper in the place of the ballot paper so delivered and the spoilt ballot paper shall be immediately cancelled and the counterfoil thereof marked accordingly.

Spoilt ballot papers

72. (1) On the application of a voter who is, by reason of a disability or being unable to read or write, and therefore unable to vote in the manner prescribed in these Regulations, the presiding officer shall permit the voter to be assisted or supported by a person of the voter's own free choice, and who shall not be a candidate or an agent.

Assisted voters

(2) Where the person who applies to be assisted is not accompanied by a person who is qualified to assist him or her, the presiding officer shall assist such voter, in the presence of the agents.

(3) The presiding officer may make such necessary and respectful inquiry in order to establish that the voter and the person the voter has chosen to assist him or her satisfies the provisions of this regulation.

(4) The person chosen by the voter is not required to be qualified to vote but is required to have attained the age of eighteen years.

(5) The following shall apply with respect to a person who assists a voter under this regulation—

- (a) the person shall, before assisting or supporting the voter, make a declaration of secrecy before the presiding officer in Form 32 set out in the Schedule;
- (b) a person who breaches his or her declaration commits an offence under the Act;
- (c) the person shall assist or support only one voter at that election and have a mark as proof of assisting or supporting a voter

(6) Where a presiding officer grants the request of a voter under this regulation, the presiding officer shall record in the polling station register against the name of the voter the fact that the voter was assisted and the reason for the assistance.

(7) No person other than a person acting under this regulation shall be present in a compartment of a polling station while a voter is in the compartment for the purpose of marking his or her ballot paper and any person who contravenes this subregulation commits an offence.

PART XIII—COUNTING OF VOTES AND DECLARATION OF RESULTS

Procedure on close of polling

73. (1) At the end of voting, the presiding officer shall declare the polling station closed and shall proceed to seal the ballot boxes in the presence of the candidates or agents and observers at his or her polling station.

(2) Immediately after the close of the polling at his or her polling station, the presiding officer shall make in the polling station diary a written statement of—

- (a) the number of ballot papers issued to him or her under regulation 61;
- (b) the number of ballot papers, other than spoilt ballot papers, issued to voters;
- (c) the number of spoilt ballot papers, and
- (d) the number of ballot papers remaining unused.

(3) Immediately after the completion of the statement under subregulation (2), the presiding officer, in the presence of the candidates or agents shall seal in separate tamper proof envelopes—

- (a) the spoilt ballot papers, if any;
- (b) the marked copy register, where necessary;
- (c) the counterfoils of the used ballot papers, and
- (d) the statement specified in subregulations, and shall seal each of the envelopes with his or her own seal and the seal of the Commission and shall allow any candidate or agent who may wish to do so, to affix his seal to the envelope and any statement recorded under these regulations.

(4) After complying with the provisions of this regulation, the presiding officer shall, as soon as practicable, deliver the ballot boxes, and the tamper proof sealed envelopes to the returning officer who shall take charge thereof

74. (1) No agent shall be deemed to be an agent for the purposes of counting unless, at least forty eight hours before the close of the poll in that election, the candidate or political party, as the case may be, has submitted to the presiding officer—

Attendance at
counting of votes

(a) the name and address of the agent; and

(b) a letter of the appointment of the agent.

(2) A presiding officer shall not allow a person whose name, address and authorization has not been so submitted to attend at a counting of votes notwithstanding that the appointment of that person is otherwise in order

(3) A presiding officer shall not be obliged to admit more than one agent of any one political party, candidate or referendum committee, as the case may be, to the counting venue.

(4) The presiding officer shall permit into the counting venue—

(a) a candidate;

(b) a person nominated as a deputy to the candidate, where applicable,

(c) members of the Commission and election officers on duty;

(d) agents appointed under subregulation (1),

(e) police officers on duty,

(f) observers and representatives of the media duly approved or accredited by the Commission

(5) If a vehicle or vessel is designated as a polling station and weather conditions exist, immediately after the presiding officer complies with the provisions of regulation 74, which may interfere with the counting of votes, the returning officer may allow the vehicle or vessel to be moved to another appropriate place for the counting of the votes.

75. (1) The presiding officer shall, in the presence of the candidates or agents, proceed to arrange the counting venue, assign duties to the clerks and begin to count the votes for that polling station.

Commencement and sequence of the count

(2) The presiding officer shall carry out the counting of votes for the respective elective posts in the following order—

(a) president;

(b) member of the National Assembly;

(c) member of the County Assembly,

(d) senator;

(e) county woman representative in the National Assembly, and

(f) county governor.

(3) A presiding officer shall, so far as practicable, proceed continuously with the counting of votes.

(4) A presiding officer shall not commence the counting or recount of votes unless the presiding officer is of the opinion that the count or recount, as the case may be, can conveniently be completed without a break.

(5) Subject to subregulation (2), the counting of votes cast by Kenyan citizens residing outside Kenya shall be carried out after the close of polling time in Kenya and in accordance with the time of counting in Kenya.

Counting of votes

76. (1) The presiding officer shall, in the presence of the candidates or agents—

- (a) open each ballot box and empty its contents onto the counting table or any other facility provided for the purpose and, shall cause to be counted the votes received by each candidate; and
- (b) record the total number of votes cast in favour of each candidate.

(2) Each ballot paper shall be counted as follows—

- (a) the presiding officer shall in respect of every ballot paper, announce the candidate in whose favor the vote was cast;
- (b) display to the candidates or agents the ballot paper sufficiently for them to ascertain the vote; and
- (c) put the ballot paper at the place on the counting table, or other facility provided for this purpose, set for the candidate in whose favor it was cast.

(3) The presiding officer shall record the count of the vote in a tallying sheet in Form 33 set out in the Schedule

(4) A candidate or an agent shall have a right to—

- (a) dispute the inclusion in the count, of a ballot paper; or
- (b) object to the rejection of a ballot paper, where upon the presiding officer may decide to uphold or reject the complaint and act as provided under regulation 80

Rejection of ballot papers, etc

77. (1) At the counting of votes at an election, any ballot paper—

- (a) which does not bear the security features determined by the Commission;
- (b) on which votes are marked, or appears to be marked against the names of, more than one candidate;
- (c) on which anything is written or so marked as to be uncertain for whom the vote has been cast,
- (d) which bears a serial number different from the serial number of the respective polling station and which cannot be verified from the counterfoil of ballot papers used at that polling station; or
- (e) is unmarked,

shall, subject to subregulation (2), be void and shall not be counted.

(2) A ballot paper on which a vote is marked—

(a) elsewhere than in the proper place,

(b) by more than one mark; or

(c) which bears marks or writing which may identify the voter, shall not by that reason only be void if an intention that the vote shall be for one or other of the candidates, as the case may be, clearly appears, and the manner in which the paper is marked does not itself identify the voter and it is not shown that the voter can be identified thereby 78 (1) Every rejected ballot paper shall be marked with the word "rejected" by the presiding officer, and, if an objection is made by a candidate or an agent to the rejection, the presiding officer shall add the words "rejection objected to".

Rejected ballot
papers

(2) The presiding officer shall mark every ballot paper counted but whose validity has been disputed or questioned by a candidate or an agent with the word "disputed" but such ballot paper shall be treated as valid for the purpose of the declaration of election results at the polling station.

(3) After the counting of votes is concluded, the presiding officer shall draw up a statement showing the number of rejected ballot papers under such of the following heads of rejection as may be applicable—

(a) want of security feature.

(b) voting for more than one candidate;

(c) writing or mark by which the voter might be identified; or

(d) unmarked or void for uncertainty, and any candidate, counting agent or observer shall, if he or she so desires, be allowed to copy that statement.

79 (1) The presiding officer, the candidates or agents shall sign the declaration in respect of the elections.

Candidates, etc to sign declaration

(2) For purposes of subregulation (1), the declaration for—

(a) presidential election results shall be in Form 34 set out in the Schedule;

(b) National Assembly, county women representatives, Senator, county governor and county assembly elections shall be in Form 35 set out in the Schedule.

(2) The presiding officer shall—

(a) immediately announce the results of the voting at that polling station before communicating the results to the returning officer,

(b) request each of the candidates or agent then present to append his or her signature;

(c) provide each political party, candidate, or their agent with a copy of the declaration of the results; and

(d) affix a copy of the declaration of the results at the public entrance to the polling station or at any other place convenient and accessible to the public at the polling station.

(3) Where any candidate or agent refuses or otherwise fails to sign the declaration form, the candidate or agents shall be required to record the reasons for the refusal or failure to sign.

(4) Where a candidate or an agent refuses or fails to record the reasons for refusal or failure to sign the declaration form, the presiding officer shall record the fact of their refusal or failure to sign the declaration form.

(5) Where any candidate or agent of a candidate is absent, the presiding officer shall record the fact of their absence.

(6) The refusal or failure of a candidate or an agent to sign a declaration form under subregulation (4) or to record the reasons for their refusal to sign as required under this regulation shall not by itself invalidate the results announced under subregulation (2)(a)

(7) The absence of a candidate or an agent at the signing of a declaration form or the announcement of results under subregulation (2) shall not by itself invalidate the results announced.

(8) After complying with the provisions of this regulation, the presiding officer shall, as soon as practicable, deliver the ballot boxes, and the tamper proof envelopes to the returning officer who shall take charge thereof.

Recount

80. (1) A candidate or agent, if present when the counting is completed, may require the presiding officer to have the votes rechecked and recounted or the presiding officer may on his or her own initiative, have the votes recounted.

Provided that the recount of votes shall not take place more than twice.

(2) No steps shall be taken on the completion of a count or recount of votes until the candidates and agents present at the completion of the counting have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right given by this regulation.

Sealing of ballot papers by presiding officer

81. (1) Upon completion of a count (including a recount), the presiding officer shall seal in separate tamper proof envelopes—

- (a) the counted ballot papers which are not disputed;
- (b) the rejected ballot papers together with the statement relating thereto;
- (c) the disputed ballot papers; and
- (d) the “rejected objected to” ballot papers;

(2) The presiding officer shall, after demonstrating to the candidates or agents as the case may be, that the ballot box to be used to carry the election results is empty, put into that box—

- (a) the packets specified in subregulation (1); and
- (b) the statements made under regulations 78 and 79.

(3) After the procedure in sub regulation (2), the presiding officer shall seal the ballot box with the seal of the Commission and allow the candidates or agents to affix their own seals on the ballot box, if they so wish.

(4) The presiding officer shall, as soon as is practicable deliver to the returning officer for the electoral area the ballot box containing the items listed under subregulation (2).

82. (1) The presiding officer shall, before ferrying the actual results of the election to the returning officer at the tallying venue, submit to the returning officer the results in electronic form, in such manner as the Commission may direct.

Provisional results to be transmitted electronically

(2) The results submitted under subregulation (1) shall be provisional and subject to confirmation after the procedure described in regulation 73.

83.(1) Immediately after the results of the poll from all polling stations in a constituency have been received by the returning officer, the returning officer shall, in the presence of candidates or agents and observers, if present —

- (a) tally the results from the polling stations in respect of each candidate, without recounting the ballots that were not in dispute and where the returning officer finds the total valid votes in a polling station exceeds the number of registered voters in that polling station, the returning officer shall disregard the results of the count of that polling station in the announcement of the election results and make a statement to that effect;
- (b) in the case of an election, publicly announce to persons present the total number of valid votes cast for each candidate in respect of each election in the order provided in regulation 75(2);
- (c) complete Form 34 and 35 set out in the Schedule in which the returning officer shall declare, as the case may be, the—
 - (i) name of the respective electoral area;
 - (ii) total number of registered voters;
 - (iii) votes cast for each candidate or referendum side in each polling station;
 - (iv) number of rejected votes for each candidate in each polling station;
 - (v) aggregate number of votes cast in the respective electoral area; and
 - (vi) aggregate number of rejected votes, and
- (d) sign and date the form and—
 - (i) give to any candidate, or agent present a copy of the form; and
 - (ii) deliver to the Commission the original of Form 34 and 35 together with Form 36 and Form 37 as the case may be.

Tallying and announcement of election results

(2) The results of the presidential election in a constituency shown in Form 34 shall be subject to confirmation by the Commission after a tally of all the votes cast in the election.

(3) The decisions of the returning officer on the validity or otherwise of a ballot paper or a vote under this regulation shall be final except in an election petition.

Venue of final tallying

84. (1) A final tallying of results for the respective elective posts shall be at a venue gazetted by the Commission for that purpose

(2) A tallying centre shall be selected subject to the following requirements—

- (a) the presidential elections tallying centre shall be located in Nairobi;
- (b) the county tallying centre shall be located at the county headquarters;
- (c) the constituency tallying centre shall be located at the constituency or district headquarters.
- (d) all tallying centres shall be located at public buildings.

Persons allowed into tallying centres

85. (1) The returning officer shall allow the following persons to be present at the tallying centre—

- (a) the presiding officers and other election officials on duty;
- (b) a candidate;
- (c) a person nominated as a deputy to the candidate, where applicable;
- (d) a member of the Commission;
- (e) authorized agents;
- (f) a police officer on duty,
- (g) duly accredited election observers; and
- (h) duly accredited media persons

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of this regulation, the returning officer shall not be obliged to admit more than one agent per candidate or political party to the tallying venue.

Sealing of ballot papers by returning officer

86. (1) After the final tallying and announcement of results, the returning officer shall seal up in separate tamper proof envelopes—

- (a) the counted ballot papers which are not disputed;
- (b) the validated disputed ballot papers; and
- (c) the rejected disputed ballot papers.

together with the statements related thereto and shall put the sealed packets in the used ballot box in the presence of candidates or agents as are present and seal the ballot box with a seal of the Commission.

(2) The returning officer shall allow the candidates or agents of the candidates present to affix seals on the ballot box, if they so wish

87. (1) The returning officer shall, as soon as practicable, forward to the county returning officer, in the case of—

Returns of persons elected

(a) a presidential election, a certificate in Form 37 showing the total number of votes cast for each candidate,

(b) a member of National Assembly, county woman representative, Senate, county assembly, county governor or county assembly election, a certificate in Form 38 set out in the Schedule showing the total number of votes cast for each candidate

(2) The returning officer shall after tallying of votes at the constituency level—

(a) announce the results cast for all candidates;

(b) issue certificates to persons elected in the National Assembly and county assembly elections in Form 38 set out in the Schedule; and

(c) electronically transmit the provisional results to the Commission.

(3) The county returning officer shall upon receipt of the results from the returning officers as contemplated under regulation (1)—

(a) tally and announce the results for the presidential elections, elections for the county governor, senator and county woman representative to the National assembly; and

(b) submit all the results received from the returning officers, together with the results tallied under this regulation to the Commission, and

(c) issue the persons elected pursuant to the results announced under paragraph (a) with certificates indicating their election in Form 38 set out in the Schedule

(4) Upon receipt of a certificate under subregulation (1), the Chairperson of the Commission shall —

(a) in the case of a presidential election, hold the certificate until the results of that election in every county have been received and thereafter publish a notice in the Gazette within seven days declaring the person who has received the greatest number of votes in the election, and has complied with the provisions of Article 138(4)(a) and (b) of the Constitution, to have been elected President

Provided that the Chairperson of the Commission may declare a candidate elected as the President before all the counties have delivered their results if in the opinion of the commission the results that have not been received will not make a difference as to the winner on the basis of Article 138(4)(a) and (b) of the Constitution, and

(b) in the case of the other elections, whether or not forming part of a multiple election, publish a notice in the Gazette, which may form part of a composite notice, showing the name or names of the person or persons elected.

(5) Where no candidate is elected in a presidential election a fresh election shall be held within thirty days after the previous election in accordance with Article 138 of the Constitution, and the Commission shall for that purpose, issue a notice in the Gazette to that effect.

(6) Where a governor, parliamentary or county assembly election results in a tie, the Commission shall proceed to conduct fresh elections without notifying the speaker within thirty days, in accordance with the Act and these Regulations.

(7) The Commission shall certify to the clerk of each respective House of Parliament the candidates who have been elected in the parliamentary election.

(8) The Commission shall, after delivery of a written notification of the results of the presidential election to the Chief Justice and the incumbent President as required by Article 138(10)(b) of the Constitution, issue and deliver a certificate in Form 37 set out in the Schedule to the candidate who has been elected President.

(9) The returning officer shall on completion of the tallying submit provisional, results to the Commission.

(10) The county returning officer shall on completion of the tallying of the results at the county level, electronically submit the tallied provisional results to the Commission

PART XIV—PRESIDENTIAL FRESH ELECTION

Notice of fresh election of president.

88. (1) Where pursuant to Article 138 (5) of the Constitution, no candidate is elected as president, the Commission shall at the time of publishing the results, publish a notice in the Gazette indicating that no candidate has been elected president.

(2) The Commission shall within two days of the notice under sub regulation (1), publish a notice for a fresh election for president in Form 39 set out in the Schedule.

Procedure at a fresh election

89. These Regulations shall, with the necessary modifications and adaptations, apply to a fresh election under this Part.

Special voting

90. (1) The Commission may make provision for the voting, by election officials, observers, patients admitted in hospital, older members of the society, members of the defence and security forces on duty, prisoners and nomadic pastoralists and other persons who by reason of any special need, including disability, are unable to access a polling station.

(2) The Commission may, from time, to time publish notices on the manner and procedure of the conduct of special voting and such notice shall be read as if part of these Regulations.

PART XV—REFERENDUM

Application by referendum committees

91. (1) An application for registration as a referendum committee shall be made to the Commission and shall—

(a) be accompanied by information and statements showing that the applicants generally represent those campaigning for or against the referendum question, as the case may be, and

(b) be made within the period specified by the Commission.

(2) An application for registration shall be signed by the leader of the referendum committee and shall be in Form 40.

(3) On receipt of an application for registration of a referendum committee, the Commission—

(a) shall if the commission is satisfied with the application and that the referendum committee satisfies such requirements as the Commission may determine, register the referendum committee and inform the person who signed the application, or

(b) if the Commission determines that the referendum committee should not be registered, inform the person who signed the application that the application has been declined and state the reasons thereof.

(4) A referendum committee shall not be registered if—

(a) the application does not comply with these Regulations;

(b) the name of the committee so resembles the name of a previously registered referendum committee that the referendum committee is likely to be confused with that previously registered referendum committee; or

(c) the Commission is not satisfied that the applicant adequately represents persons campaigning for a particular outcome.

(5) A referendum committee shall not be registered if the name or logo of the referendum committee is the name or logo of a political party or so resembles such a name or logo that the referendum committee is likely to be confused with the political party

(6) For the purpose of sub regulation (5), the name of a political party means—

(a) the full name of the political party, or

(b) any name, or abbreviation of a name, used to identify the political party in election documents.

(7) Where a referendum committee is registered and any information given by the referendum committee pursuant to sub regulation (2) ceases to be applicable or accurate, the referendum committee shall forthwith send a report in writing, signed by the leader or chief agent of the referendum committee, to the Commission setting out the information necessary to bring the information up to date.

(8) The registration of a referendum committee for the purposes of a referendum is valid only for that referendum.

92. (1) A referendum committee that intends to apply for registration under regulation 91 shall, before applying, appoint a chief agent.

(2) The Commission shall maintain a register of the chief agents of registered referendum committees in which shall be recorded the name, address and telephone number of the chief agent of each such committee

(3) The chief agent of a referendum committee appointed under sub regulation (1) shall be responsible for the affairs of the registered referendum committee in Form 41 set out in the Schedule and shall provide a sample signature to the Commission.

PART XVI—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Retention and inspection of documents

Cap 19

93.(1) All documents relating to an election shall be retained in safe custody by the returning officer for a period of three years after the results of the elections have been declared and shall then, unless the Commission or the court otherwise directs, be disposed of in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Commission subject to the Public Archives and Documentation Service Act

(2) Any person may apply to the High Court with notice to all candidates in the election concerned for authority to inspect documents retained under these Regulations, other than ballot papers and their counterfoils.

(3) For the purpose of an inspection under subregulation (2), the returning officer shall unseal the documents concerned in the presence of candidates or agents and the returning officer and candidates or their agents shall keep the documents under their scrutiny until they are resealed by the returning officer after the inspection is completed.

(4) The provisions of this regulation shall not apply to documents that concern a pending election petition unless there is a court order granting such authority.

Accreditation of observers

94. (1) Pursuant to section 42 of the Act, the Commission may, at any election, accredit any person or organisation to observe the elections.

(2) The Commission shall issue guidelines for election observers, consistent with internationally accepted standards for fair elections, and which shall be binding on election observers upon accreditation by the Commission.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-regulation (2), the guidelines issued there under may specify the procedures for the accreditation of election observers.

(4) The Commission may revoke the accreditation it has granted to any election observer where it is satisfied that an election observer is partisan or has violated any requirement of the guidelines referred to in sub regulation (2).

(5) No person or organisation may observe any election unless the person or organisation has been accredited by the Commission.

(6) All the accredited election observers shall submit to the commission a written report in accordance with the guidelines issued by the commission in subregulation (2).

Accreditation of the media

95 (1) Pursuant to section 41 of the Act, the Commission may at any election, accredit the media to access and cover the electoral process

(2) The Commission may issue guidelines consistent with internationally accepted standards for fair elections which shall be binding on all media representatives upon accreditation by the Commission.

96. (1) The Commission may collaborate with such public and private entities as may be suitable for purposes of ensuring effective conduct of elections and referendum

Collaborations

(2) The collaboration arrangements in subregulation (1) shall be governed by the terms of a partnership agreement between the Commission and the respective entity

(3) The agreement shall stipulate the terms and conditions on the engagement and shall conform to, and respect, the provisions of the Constitution, the Act and these Regulations

97 (1) Where in these Regulations expression is used requiring, authorizing, or implying that, any act is to be done in the presence of the candidates or agents, that expression shall be regarded as reference to the presence of such candidates or agents as may be required or authorized to attend

Non attendance by candidates, etc not to invalidate proceedings

(2) The mere non-attendance of any candidate or agents at the time and place as contemplated under sub-regulation (1) shall not, if any act is otherwise lawfully done, invalidate that act

98. Subject to the Act and these Regulations, the Commission shall have power to, by notice in the Gazette, provide for measures to ensure efficient and fair elections and referendum and may issue directives from time to time in that regard.

Power of Commission to issue directives

(2) Where the Commission issues directives under subregulation (1), the Commission shall ensure that such directives are published in such manner as to reach the persons who may be affected or whose compliance or action may be required

99. (1) For the purposes of Article 88(4) of the Constitution, the Commission shall develop, and publish in the Gazette, rules of procedure, including timelines applicable, for the settlement of electoral disputes under the Constitution, the Act or these Regulations

Dispute resolution

(2) All disputes emanating from political party nominations shall be resolved by the Commission at least seven days to the day designated for submission to the Commission by political parties of the names of their respective candidates

(3) Any rule made pursuant to this Regulation shall be published in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper of national circulation at least three months before the election to which the rules are intended to apply.

100 These Regulations shall, with the necessary modification and adaptations, apply to a referendum held under the Act

Procedure at a referendum
