(c) is not holding office as a Minister;

(d) is not an officer in the Public service; and,

(e) has proven experience or interest in consolidating and furthering the aims and the objectives of the Community.

2.3. Each candidate had the opportunity to address the Committee in both English and Kiswahili on their educational and professional background and also on issues relating to the East African Community and the East African Legislative Assembly.

2.4. At the conclusion of the exercise, the Committee made the following observations on each of the nominees-

i) Ms. Jenepher Chepkwemoi Masis (PNU – Wiper Democratic Movement Party Nominee): Ms. Masis informed the Committee that she is an O level holder, and is presently a student at Digital Advisory and Learning Centre (DALC) where she is pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Community Development and Resource Mobilization. She has attended trainings and workshops on political leadership, peace building and conflict resolution.

Ms. Masis is a national delegate of Maendeleo ya Wanawake Organization. She is also a Project Manager, National Council of Women of Kenya in the North Rift Region, the Executive Director of Tears of Women Organization in Kitale handling women issues in Trans-Nzoia, Mt. Elgon and West Pokot Counties. She is the District convener of the Kenya Women Caucus and is the Programme Officer in charge of policy and strategy for Rural Women Peace Link and the Project Coordinator and Board Member for Centre for Multi-Party Democracy. She was a founder member of the League of Kenya Women Voters and is the Vice-Chairperson, National Women's Agenda Kenya. Ms. Masis was a delegate of the Constitution of Kenya Review Commission (CKRC) and was a member of the Board of the Betting Control and Licensing Board.

Ms. Masis informed the Committee that the East African Legislative Assembly is central to ensuring the growth of the East African Community in all spheres – economic, social, and political and that the Assembly is an integral body in peace-building within the country.

She further informed the Committee that she believed she was best-suited for election as a Member of the Assembly owing to her wide experience in peace building and socio-economic issues at the community level. She further observed that she ought to be considered as a woman from one of the marginalized counties.

- ii) Mr. Saoli Ole Nkanae, MBS (PNU Party Nominee): He is the holder of Bachelor of Education – Science Degree in Botany and Zoology from the University of Nairobi. He is a long-serving Education Officer having previously served as a teacher in various schools. He also has a Diploma in Community based Prevention Management and Treatment of AIDS at Galilee College in Israel. He has attended several management courses offered by the Eastern and Southern Africa Management Institute (ESAMI). He has served in several capacities in the Education sector, including as a Commissioner of the Teachers Service Commission, as Deputy Chairman of the Teachers Service Commission, and as a District Education Officer for many years in various Districts.

Mr. ole Nkanae informed the Committee that with his background and experience in the education sector, as a Member of the Assembly he would be interested in ensuring that a common education system is adopted by the partner States. Mr. Nkanae also informed the Committee that he is from a minority community.

iii) Hon. Catherine N. Kimura (PNU – NARC Kenya Party Nominee): A holder of Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of East Africa, Nairobi (1970). She also has a Post Graduate Diploma in Tourism and International Relations from the University of Paris and a Post Graduate Certificate in Public Finance Management from the University of Connecticut, USA. She has attended technical and professional courses on Budgeting in the Public Sector, Development and Management of Tourism Resources, Management Development, among others. She has served in Government and rose through the ranks from the position of Assistant Tourist Officer, Tourist Officer, Director, Assistant Secretary, Under Secretary, Deputy Secretary, Chief Finance Officer, Project Coordinator – Nairobi City Council Financial Oversight Board, Advisor – Inspectorate of State Corporations and Investment Secretary and Head of Privatization in the Ministry of Finance.

Ms. Kimura is presently a Member of the East African Legislative Assembly (EALA) which she has served since 2007 to date. While in EALA, she served as the Chairperson of Communications, Trade and Investment Committee and a Member of the Accounts Committee. Ms. Kimura informed the Committee that as the Chairperson of the Communications, Trade and Investment Committee, she interacted with Members of Parliament from Kenya and with stakeholders on trade issues. She also sourced for funding for sensitization of key stakeholders on trade and economic partnership agreements under the East African Community. She further stated that she engaged stakeholders on Bills that were before the Assembly and ensured that the input of the stakeholders was taken into account in the legislation that was passed.

iv) Hon. Sarah Talaso Godana (PNU – KANU Party Nominee): The nominee holds a Masters in Health Management, Policy and Planning from Leeds University (UK), a Diploma in Midwifery, a Diploma in Nursing and a Higher Diploma in Public Health Education from Kenya Medical College. She has served in the Health Sector in various capacities including Nursing Officer III (in Moyale Sub-district hospital), Nursing Officer II, Health Education officer (in Kenyatta National Hospital) and Information Education and Communication Officer (KEPI and RH Unit of the Ministry of Health).

She is a Member of the East African Legislative Assembly (EALA) a position she has held since 2007. In the Assembly, she has served in three committees, namely the Regional Affairs and Conflict Resolution Committee, the General Purpose and Budget Committee and Legal Rules and Privileges Committee. Hon. Bonaya informed the Committee that if re-elected, she would be an asset as she has institutional memory in the issues before the Assembly that will ensure continuation and enrich debates in the Assembly, particularly on matters of health, women issues, education, budget matters, peace and security.

v) Amb. Abubakar Dubow Abdi Ogle (PNU – NARC Kenya Party Nominee): Mr. Abubakar holds a Masters Degree in Journalism from the University of Wales (UK) and a Certificate from the Centre for Diplomatic Training in Tehran in the Islamic Republic of Iran. He has over 25 years working experience as a journalist, a political commentator, analyst, teacher and he recently served as Kenya's Ambassador to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia with multiple accreditations to several Gulf and Middle East Countries.

Amb. Ogle stated that his experience and track record as an accomplished journalist and diplomat would be an asset to the East African Legislative Assembly. He stated that as an Ambassador, he had been involved in trade negotiations.

vi) Mr. Charles Lokioto Ewoi (PNU – Ford Kenya Party Nominee): Mr. Ewoi is a holder of Bachelor of Education (Arts) degree from Kenyatta University, Bachelor of Arts Continuing Education from Portsmouth University (UK), and Certificate in Teaching Egoji Teachers Training College. He has previously served as a Teacher, Deputy Headteacher and as a Quality Assurance, a Standards Officer, a District Early Childhood Education Lecturer, and recently from 2006 to 2011 as the Executive Secretary of Kenya National Union of Teachers (KNUT), Turkana Branch.

Mr. Ewoi informed the Committee that with his background and experience in the education sector, as a Member of the Assembly he would be interested in ensuring that a common education system is adopted by the Partner States. He further informed the Committee that coming from Turkana, a County that borders other East African States, peace and conflict resolution issues would matter that he would seek to champion in the Assembly.

Concerning the question as to whether he is a public officer, Mr. Ewoi informed the Committee that he was an employee of the Teachers Service Commission. He informed the Committee that he had written a resignation letter dated 21st May 2012 to the Commission, a copy of which he provided and which is annexed to this Report as Annex 2. The Committee observed that this letter had not been date-stamped as received by the Commission, a position that Mr. Ewoi confirmed. Mr. Ewoi further submitted a print-out titled “IPPD Reference Data Sheet – Complement Control Record” – Annex 3.

The Committee observed that Mr. Ewoi did not appear to have met the requirements of section 35(1)(f) of the former Constitution, which by section 3 of the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution, is applicable. That section provides that a person shall not be qualified to be elected as a member of the National Assembly if on the date of his nomination he holds or is acting in any office in the public service.

- vii) Mr. Peter Mutuku Mathuki (PNU – Wiper Democratic Movement Party Nominee): The Nominee holds a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree and a Bachelor of Commerce Degree from Maharishi Dayanand (India), and is currently pursuing a Ph.D Degree in Strategic Planning focus on Industrial Relations from the University of Nairobi. Further, Ms. Nancy Kabeyeka has experience in gender issues having participated at the Beijing Platform of Action. She is currently the program officer for the Africa Program of the Centre for Housing Rights and Evictions.

She informed the Committee that if elected, she would add value to the Assembly particularly in the areas of strengthening democracy, reduction of poverty and human rights.

xvii) Mr. Junet Sheikh Nuh Mohamed (ODM Party Nominee): The nominee holds a Diploma in Business Management and Entrepreneurship from Woodvale Institute. The nominee was in from 2003 to 2008, nominated as a Councilor in Migori County Council. During the same period, he was the Mayor of Migori County Council. Mr. Sheikh Nuh is currently a businessman and the Chief Executive Officer of the Al – Falah Wholesalers.

He informed the Committee that he was well aware of the problems relating to immigration and customs in the Community. Having experienced these first-hand, he would be well placed to articulate these issues if elected to the Assembly.

xviii) Mr. Joseph Kiangoi Ombasa, OGW (ODM Party Nominee): He holds a Bachelors Degree of Laws (LLB) degree from the University of Nairobi, and is currently a legal practitioner. Mr. Ombasa was elected as a Member of Parliament (1998- 2002). He served as an Assistant Minister in the Ministry of Local Government and the Ministry of Research and Technology. He served as District Magistrate II from 1978 to 1980. He has been, among other leadership positions held, the Vice Patron of the Agricultural Society of Kenya. Further, the nominee was a Member of the Parliamentary Select Committee on the Review of the Constitution of Kenya (1999- 2001). The nominee has received several awards including the Order of the Grand Warrior of Kenya (OGW).

He informed the Committee that if elected to the Assembly, he would be ensure that legislation-making in the Assembly is strengthened and that closer cooperation is fostered between the Partner States.

xix) Mr. Abubakar Zein Abubakar (ODM Party Nominee): Mr. Abubakar is the holder of a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Kenyatta University. He is currently pursuing a Masters Degree in Peace at the University of Nairobi. He is the Executive Director, Accounting Officer and Secretary to the Board of Trustees, Uraia Trust. He has worked as the program manager for the National Civic Education Program Phase Two, NCEP II, Uraia. He was, until his resignation, a member of the Governing Council of the Kenya Cultural Centre (2009-2012). Mr. Abubakar was a Commissioner of the Constitution of Kenya Review Commission (CKRC).

He informed the Committee that if elected he would seek to ensure that Kenya is not perceived as a threat by the other Partner States and would seek to ensure that there were “people-people” interactions between the citizens of the Partner States rather than interaction only at the policy and technical spheres.

3.0. CONCLUSIONS

Subsequent to the foregoing, the Committee observed as follows-

- (1) THAT, Article 50(1) of the Treaty Establishing the East African Community requires that the persons elected “represent as much as it is feasible the various political parties represented in National Assembly, shades of opinion, gender and other special interest groups in that Partner State”.

Further Rule 8(3) of the Rules provides that-

The Returning Officer may, after consultation with the relevant Departmental Committee, reject all nominations and order a fresh nomination if it is apparent from the list of nominees that it shall not be possible, upon the holding of elections, to have, as much as is feasible, a fair representation of the various political parties in the National Assembly, regional balance, shades of opinion, gender and other special interest groups in Kenya and to ensure that at least one third of the persons elected are women.

The Committee observed that the nomination of the nineteen (19) candidates for election satisfied the requirements of Article 50(1) of the Treaty and Rule 8(3) of the Rules.

- (2) On gender, county and regional representation, the analysis indicated as follows-

7. WESTERN

No.	Name	Gender	Party	County
1	MS. NANCY KABEYEKA LUNG'AHU ABISAI	FEMALE	ODM PARTY	VIHIGA

The Committee observed that there was no candidate nominated from the Nairobi region.

(4) On the youth, the Committee noted that only two candidates fell within this category-

No.	Name	Age	Gender	Party	County
1	MR. JUNET SHEIKH NUH MOHAMED	34	MALE	ODM PARTY	MANDERA
2.	MS. TAWHIDA RAMADHANI JUMA	31	FEMALE	PNU (NARC - KENYA	MOMBASA

(5) On gender, the Committee observed that of the candidates nominated by each party-

1. ODM Party nominated 6 male candidates and 3 female candidates; and
2. PNU Party and its Associates nominated 6 male candidates and 4 female candidates.

(6) Concerning the nomination of Mr. Charles Lokioto Ewoi (PNU - FORD – K Party Nominee), Mr. Ewoi informed the Committee that he was an employee of the Teachers Service Commission. He informed the Committee that he had written a resignation letter dated 21st May 2012 to the Commission, a copy of which he provided and which is annexed to this Report as Annex 2. The Committee observed that this letter had not been date-stamped as received by the Commission, a position that Mr. Ewoi confirmed. Mr. Ewoi further submitted a print-out titled “IPPD Reference Data Sheet – Complement Control Record” – Annex 3.

The Committee observed that Mr. Ewoi did not appear to have met the requirements of section 35(1)(f) of the former Constitution, which by section 3 of the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution, is applicable. That section provides that a person shall not be qualified to be elected as a member of the National Assembly if on the date of his nomination he holds or is acting in any office in the public service.

(7) THAT, pursuant to Article 50(1) of the Treaty Establishing the East African Community and Rule 8(3) of the Rules, the Committee observes that in the election of the members of the East African Legislative Assembly, the House will be required to ensure that the persons elected “represent as much as it is feasible, a fair representation of the various political parties in the National Assembly, regional balance, shades of opinion, gender and other special interest groups in Kenya and to ensure that at least one third of the persons elected are women”.

(8) THAT, in view of the strict timelines attendant to this matter, the Committee proposes that the matter be dealt with expeditiously in order to ensure that the elected Members of the East African Legislative Assembly participate in the inauguration of the New Parliament of the East African Legislative Assembly scheduled for 4th June, 2012.

She has served in the Association of Local Government. She stated that if elected, she would ensure that ordinary Kenyans are involved in the Integration process.

Mr. Charles Lokioto Ewoi (PNU- FORD KENYA)

Concerning the nomination of Mr. Ewoi informed the Committee that he was an employee of the Teachers Service Commission. He informed the Committee that he had written a resignation letter dated 21st May 2012 to the Commission, a copy of which he provided. The Committee observed that this letter had not been date-stamped as received by the Commission, a position that Mr. Ewoi confirmed. Mr. Ewoi further submitted a print-out titled "IPPD Reference Data Sheet – Complement Control Record".

The Committee observed that Mr. Ewoi did not appear to have met the requirements of section 35(1)(f) of the former Constitution, which by section 3 of the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution, is applicable. That section provides that a person shall not be qualified to be elected as a member of the National Assembly if on the date of his nomination he holds or is acting in any office in the public service.

Mr. Abubakar Zein Abubakar (ODM PARTY NOMINEE)

He informed the Committee that if elected he would seek to ensure that Kenya is not perceived as a threat by the other Partner States and would seek to ensure that there were "people-people" interactions between the citizens of the Partner States rather than interaction only at the policy and technical spheres

Hon. Catherine N. Kimura (PNU- NARC KENYA)

Ms. Kimura is presently a Member of the East African Legislative Assembly (EALA) which she has served since 2007 to date. While in EALA, she served as the Chairperson of Communications, Trade and Investment Committee and a Member of the Accounts

Committee. Ms. Kimura informed the Committee that as the Chairperson of the Communications, Trade and Investment Committee, she interacted with Members of Parliament from Kenya and with stakeholders on trade issues. She also sourced for funding for sensitization of key stakeholders on trade and economic partnership agreements under the East African Community. She further stated that she engaged stakeholders on Bills that were before the Assembly and ensured that the input of the stakeholders was taken into account in the legislation that was passed.

Immanuel Ichor Imana (ODM PARTY NOMINEE)

He informed the Committee that he is currently working in the arena of peace building and conflict resolution and that his experience in this area would be an added advantage if he were elected to the Assembly.

Mr. Peter Mutuku Mathuki (PNU- WIPER DEMOCRATIC PARTY)

He informed the Committee that if elected as a Member of the Assembly he would be interested in ensuring that the legislation required for the implementation of the protocol is enacted. Such legislation would assist in overcoming the trade challenges experienced in the Community. He further added that in his view, each phase of the federation should be taken at its own phase and that the political federation should only be entered into once there is sufficient awareness amongst the citizens.

LEGAL NOTICE NO. ....

THE TREATY FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE EAST AFRICAN COMMUNITY ACT. (No. 2 of 2000)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by Article 50(1) of the Treaty for the Establishment of the East African Community Act, the National Assembly of Kenya makes the following Rules-

THE TREATY FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE EAST AFRICAN COMMUNITY (ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY) RULES, 2012.

PART I - PRELIMINARY

Citation and commencement.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Treaty for the Establishment of the East African Community (Election of Members of the Assembly) Rules, 2012 and shall be deemed to have come into force on the 9th of May, 2012, being the date on which they were adopted by the National Assembly through its resolution.

Interpretation.

2. In these Rules, the parliamentary words and expressions used have the same meaning as that assigned to them in the Standing Orders of the National Assembly and unless the context otherwise requires-

---

~~“candidate” means a person who is nominated to stand for election to the East African Legislative Assembly;~~

“election” means an election to the East African Legislative Assembly;

“nomination” means nomination as a candidate to stand for election to the East African Legislative Assembly;

“party” means a parliamentary political party;

“relevant Departmental Committee” means the Departmental Committee of the National Assembly responsible for Foreign Affairs;

“Returning Officer” means the Clerk of the National Assembly;

“voter” means a Member of the National Assembly other than the Speaker and the Attorney-General.

PART II – QUALIFICATIONS AND NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES

Qualification for election.

3. No person shall be qualified to stand for election unless he or she is qualified to be elected in accordance with Article 50(2) of the Treaty for the Establishment of the East African Community.

Notification of election

4. (1) Where an election is to be held, the Returning Officer shall by notice in the Gazette notify that fact and invite interested qualified persons to apply, within a period of seven days, for nomination by a party.

(2) The Returning Officer shall by notice in the Gazette and in at least two daily newspapers of national circulation appoint a nomination day, which shall be at least seven days from the expiry of the period prescribed under sub-rule (1) and shall indicate in such notice the venue for the receipt of nomination papers.

Process of nomination of candidates

5. (1) In order to be validly nominated as a candidate for an election, a person shall be nominated by a party in the form set out in the Schedule.

(2) A party shall nominate candidates through a transparent and democratic process and shall keep a written record of the proceedings at which the final decision to nominate any candidate was made.

Number of nominees of each party

6. (1) A party shall be entitled to nominate for election under these Rules any number of candidates not exceeding three times the figure arrived at by multiplying the number of elected members of the National Assembly of that party by nine and dividing the result by the total number of elected members of the National Assembly.

(2) In making nominations, each party shall as much as it is feasible take into account the need for fair representation of the various political parties in the National Assembly, regional balance, shades of opinion, gender and other special interest groups in Kenya and shall ensure that at least one third of its nominees are women.

Pre-nomination briefing

7. The relevant Departmental Committee may, prior to the expiry of the period prescribed under Rule 4(2), invite the party leaders or the party whips of all parties entitled to nominate candidates for a pre-nomination briefing on the nomination requirements under the Treaty for the Establishment of the East African Community and under these Rules.

Delivery of
papers.

8. (1) On nomination day, at any time not later than four o'clock in the afternoon, a candidate or the party leader or the party whip of a party entitled to nominate candidates shall deliver the nomination papers of the candidate or candidates nominated by the party to the Returning Officer.
- (2) The Returning Officer may reject the nomination papers of any candidate if it is apparent from the contents of the nomination papers that the candidate is not qualified to stand for election.
- (3) The Returning Officer may, after consultation with the relevant Departmental Committee, reject all nominations and order a fresh nomination if it is apparent from the list of nominees that it shall not be possible, upon the holding of elections, to have, as much as is feasible, a fair representation of the various political parties in the National Assembly, regional balance, shades of opinion, gender and other special interest groups in Kenya and to ensure that at least one third of the persons elected are women.
- (4) In the event a fresh nomination is ordered, the Returning Officer may shorten the periods specified under Rule 4.

Withdrawal or death of a candidate.

9. (1) A candidate may, not later than four o'clock in the afternoon of the day following the nomination day, withdraw his or her candidature by notice in writing signed and delivered to the Returning Officer with a copy to the party leader or party whip of the party that nominated the candidate.
- (2) No withdrawal of a candidate shall be accepted after the expiry of the period prescribed under sub-rule (1).
- (3) Where a candidate dies after four o'clock in the afternoon of the nomination day, and before the election day, the election shall proceed, but the voters shall be informed of such death.
- (4) The party which nominated a candidate who dies or for any other reason ceases to be a candidate before the election day, may notwithstanding rule 8, nominate another person in place of the candidate.

Inspection of
papers

10. Subject to such conditions as the Returning Officer may prescribe, any person may during office hours for two working days from the nomination day, inspect the nomination papers of any candidate and may lodge a complaint with the Returning Officer in relation to a candidate's nomination.

Forwarding of nomination
papers to relevant Departmental Committees.

11. Within two days after the expiry of the period provided for in rule 9, the Returning Officer shall forward to the relevant Departmental Committee, for its consideration, the names and nomination papers of all duly nominated candidates.

PART III – ELECTION CAMPAIGNS AND VOTING

Audience before the relevant Departmental Committee.

12. (1) An aspiring candidate may approach and seek the support of a Member of Parliament entitled to vote, before the nomination day and may, if nominated continue to do so after the nomination day.
(2) On a date to be appointed by the relevant Departmental Committee, not being less than three days before the election day, the relevant Departmental Committee shall convene and a meeting at such place as it may determine, at which each candidate shall be permitted to appear before the Committee and to address the Committee in English or Kiswahili for such length of time and to answer such questions if any as the Committee may determine.
(3) The relevant Departmental Committee shall prepare a report of the meeting with the candidates for tabling before the National Assembly for its information but the report shall not recommend the election of any candidate.

Election day

13. The Returning Officer shall, by notice published in the Gazette and in at least two daily newspapers of national circulation appoint an election day which shall be not more than seven days and not less than three days after the nomination day.

Ballot paper

14. (1) The Returning Officer shall prepare and at the time appointed for the election, shall issue to each voter one ballot paper on which shall be written in alphabetical order, the names of all duly nominated candidates, clustered under the heading of the names of the respective parties that nominated them.
(2) A voter shall be required to cast a specified number of votes, which shall be clearly indicated on the ballot paper, in respect of the candidates nominated by each party.
(3) The number of votes to be cast under sub-rule (2) in respect of each party shall be the figure arrived at by multiplying the number of elected members of the National Assembly of that party by nine and dividing the result by the total number of elected members of the National Assembly.

Voting

15. (1) The voting shall be conducted under the general supervision of the Speaker, in the place appointed by the Speaker.
- (2) On receiving a ballot paper, a voter shall secretly record his or her votes by putting a mark against the names of the nine candidates that the voter wishes to elect as members of the East African Legislative Assembly, in the respective proportions specified under sub-rule (3) of rule 14.
- (3) A voter shall cast as many votes as the number of candidates to be elected, otherwise the ballot paper of that voter shall be regarded as spoilt
- (4) A voter who accidentally spoils a ballot paper while voting is in progress shall, on surrendering the spoilt ballot paper, be issued with a replacement ballot paper.

Counting of votes

16. (1) Immediately after all voters have cast their votes, the Speaker shall appoint two members to act as counting agents for all the candidates.
- (2) The Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the two counting agents as witnesses, count the votes cast.

Declaration of results

17. When the votes have been counted and the results of the election have been ascertained-
  - (a) the Returning Officer shall report to the National Assembly the results of the election together with the number of votes recorded for each candidate under the cluster of each party at the end of the election exercise; and
  - (b) the Speaker shall announce to the National Assembly and declare to be duly elected as members of the East African Legislative Assembly the nine persons, in the proportions specified under sub-rule (3) of rule 14 in respect of each party, who receive the highest number of votes.

Publication and transmission of names.

18. Within seven days after the Speaker announces the names of the elected members of the East African Legislative Assembly, the Clerk shall-

- (a) publish the names in the Gazette; and
- (b) transmit to the Clerk of the East African Legislative Assembly the names of the elected members as published in the Gazette.

Custody of ballot papers

19. The Returning Officer shall ensure safe custody of all ballot papers and other documents relating to the conduct of the election and shall cause all such documents to be destroyed after the expiration of six months from the election day.

PART IV – VOIDANCE OF ELECTION

Determination of validity of candidate's election

20. Any question that may arise whether a person is an elected member of the East African Legislative Assembly or whether a seat in that Assembly is vacant shall be determined by the High Court.

Procedure for voidance of elections

21. The procedure, jurisdiction and grounds for election petitions in respect of Members of Parliament shall apply mutatis mutandis for members of the East African Legislative Assembly.

PART V – MISCELLANEOUS

Filling of vacancy.

22. Where the seat of a member elected under these Rules becomes vacant, the Speaker shall upon receipt of notification of the vacancy from the Speaker of the East African Legislative Assembly, facilitate the election of a member to replace the member in accordance with the procedure set out under these Rules.

Matters not specifically provided for.

23. If any matter arises which is not specifically provided for in these Rules, the Speaker shall make a ruling directing what is to be done and in making such a ruling, the Speaker shall be guided by the practice and procedure normally followed in similar situations with regard to the conduct of elections in the National Assembly.

Transitional

24. In respect of the first election to be held after the coming into operation of these Rules, the Returning Officer may reduce the period for the doing of anything required to be done by such reasonable period as the Returning Officer may determine.

Supersession.
